Right to information in accordance with § 131 para 1 AktG

At the Annual General Meeting every shareholder or representative of a shareholder may demand that the Executive Board informs about matters relating to DEAG Deutsche Entertainment Aktiengesellschaft insofar as this is necessary for a proper assessment of the subject matter of the Agenda. The duty of information also includes the legal and business relationships of DEAG Deutsche Entertainment Aktiengesellschaft with an associated company insofar as the information is necessary for an appropriate assessment of the subject matter of the Agenda. Requests for information must be made orally during the Annual General Meeting within the framework of the general debate. Under certain circumstances specified in more detail in § 131 para 3 AktG, the Executive Board may refuse to divulge information, e.g. if the information could cause considerable disadvantages to DEAG Deutsche Entertainment Aktiengesellschaft or an associated company in accordance with a reasonable commercial assessment.

The provisions of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) underlying these rights of shareholders, which also define the conditions under which it may be refrained from providing information, are as follows:

§ 131 Right of shareholders to information

- (1) Each shareholder shall upon request be provided with information at the Annual General Meeting by the Executive Board regarding the Company's affairs, to the extent that such information is necessary to permit a proper evaluation of the relevant item on the Agenda. The duty to provide information shall also extend to the Company's legal and business relations with any affiliate. If a Company makes use of the simplified procedure pursuant to § 266 para 1 sentence 3, § 276 or § 288 of the German Commercial Code (HGB), each shareholder may request that the financial statements be presented to him at the Annual General Meeting in the form which would have been used if such provisions on the simplified procedure had not been applied. The duty to inform of the Executive Board of parent companies (§ 290 para 1, 2 of the Commercial Code) in the Annual General Meeting that reviews the consolidated financial statements and consolidated Group Management Report shall cover the situation of the Group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements.
- (2) The information provided shall comply with the principles of conscientious and accurate accounting. The Articles of Association or the rules of procedure pursuant to § 129 may authorize the chairperson of the meeting to limit the number of questions and speaking time of shareholders as appropriate and to lay down specific rules in this respect.
- (3) The Executive Board may refuse to provide information,
 1. To the extent that providing such information is, according to sound business judgment, likely to cause material damage to the Company or an affiliate;
 2. To the extent that such information relates to tax valuations or the amount of certain taxes;
 3. On the difference between the value at which items are shown in the annual balance sheet and the higher market value of such items, unless the Annual General Meeting is to approve the financial statements;
 4. On the accounting and valuation methods, if disclosure of such methods in the notes suffices to provide a clear view of the actual condition of the Company's assets, financial and earnings position within the meaning of § 264 para 2 of the Commercial Code (HGB); this shall not apply if the Annual General Meeting is to approve the financial statements;

5. If provision of such information were to render the Executive Board criminally liable;
6. If in the case of a credit institution or a financial services institution information about the applied accounting and valuation methods or calculations made in the financial statements, the management report, the consolidated financial statements or the consolidated Group Management Report do not need to be provided;
7. If the information is continuously available on the Company's website for at least seven or more days prior to the Annual General Meeting as well as during the Annual General Meeting.

The provision of information may not be refused for other reasons.

- (4) If information has been provided outside an Annual General Meeting to a shareholder by reason of his status as a shareholder, such information shall upon request be provided to any other shareholder at the Annual General Meeting, even if such information is not necessary to permit a proper evaluation of an item on the Agenda. The Executive Board may not refuse to provide such information on the grounds of para 3 sentence 1 No. 1 to 4. Sentences 1 and 2 shall not apply if a subsidiary (§ 290 para 1, 2 of the Commercial Code), a joint venture (§ 310 para 1 of the Commercial Code) or an affiliate (§ 311 para 1 of the Commercial Code) provides the information to a parent company (§ 290 para 1, 2 of the Commercial Code) for the purpose of inclusion in the consolidated financial statements of the parent company and the information is required for this purpose.
- (5) If information has been denied to a shareholder, the latter may request that his question and the reason for which the information was denied be recorded in the Minutes of the meeting.

Furthermore, the Chairman of the meeting is entitled to utilize various measures in connection with the chairing and good order during the Annual General Meeting, in particular also in respect of the restriction of the right to talk and ask questions. The corresponding provision in the Articles of Association of DEAG Deutsche Entertainment Aktiengesellschaft is as follows:

§ 18 Chairing of the Annual General Meeting (extract)

- (2) The Chairman shall chair the meeting. He shall determine the order in which the items on the Agenda are dealt with as well as the type and order of the votes. He may restrict the right to ask questions and talk of shareholders in a reasonable manner in terms of time; he may, more particularly, determine the timeframe of the course of the meeting, the discussion on the Agenda items as well as the individual talks and questions in an appropriate manner.
